EXTRA-TERRITORIAL COMMISSION.

CHINA'S JUDICIAL SYSTEM.

IMPROVING EXISTING CONDITIONS.

WASHINGTON, November 30.

An official communique states that a resolution unanimously adopted by the Far Eastern Committee relative to the extra-territorial question provides that the powers concerned shall establish a commission to which each will appoint a member to enquire into the present practice of extra-territorial jurisdiction in China and into China's laws and judicial system and methods of judicial administration, with a view to reporting findings of fact and making recommendations regarding means to improve existing conditions of the administration of justice in China and to assist the efforts of the Chinese Government to effect such legislation and judicial reforms as will warrant the powers relinquishing progressively or otherwise the rights of extra-territoriality. The commission shall be constituted within three months after the adjournment of the conference and instructed to submit a report of its recommendations within a year after the commission's first meeting. Each of the powers shall be deemed free to accept or reject all or any portion of the recommendations, but in no case may any of the powers make acceptance directly or indirectly dependent on China's granting any special concession, favour, benefit, or immunity whether political or economic.

POWERS' SYMPATHY.

LATER.

The communique states that an additional resolution provides that non-signatory powers having extra-territorial rights in China may accede to the resolution with regard to extra-territoriality within three months after the adjournment of the conference.

A further additional resolution expresses China's satisfaction with the sympathy of the powers with regard to the abolition of extra-territoriality and declares China's intention to appoint a Chinese member on the extra-territoriality commission, it being understood that China will be free to accept or reject any or all of the recommendations of the commission. China is prepared to co-operate in the work of the commission and in every way facilitate successful accomplishment of its tasks.

FOREIGN TROOPS.

Mr. Alfred Sze, in a speech, said that China was asking not merely that the existing treaty or conventional limitations upon autonomous and unembarrassed exercise of her territorial administrative powers should be removed as rapidly and completely as circumstances justified, but also that the conditions constituting continuing violation of her rights as an independent state should be corrected. He asked the conference to approve a proposition to which he contended it was committed by the principles adopted on November 21, namely that each power attending the conference declared that "without the consent of the Government of China expressly and specifically given in each case it would not station troops or railway guards and maintain police boxes or erect or operate electrical communication installations upon the soil of China, and if there now exists upon the soil of China such troops, railway guards, police boxes, or electrical installations without China's express consent they shall be immediately withdrawn."

SOVEREIGN RIGHTS.

The Chinese delegation submitted detailed data supporting Mr. Alfred Sze's statement, declaring that it was submitted "simply in order to show the extent to which China's territorial and administrative integrity was now being violated, not as implying that the Chinese Government would be contented with abatement of those specific violations of her sovereign rights."

The committee then discussed the question of foreign troops and police in China and later adjourned until November 30.

PERSIAN OIL CONCESSION.

COMPLICATED QUESTION.

LONDON, November 30.

It appears that most of the concessions in the northern provinces of Persia now granted to the Standard Oil Company were formerly held by the Anglo-Persian Company but its rights were repudiated by the new Persian government. The two companies are now investigating the position and carrying on negotiations in a very friendly spirit. A reasonable compromise is expected. The question is complicated by the fact that the Russian Soviet Government is also claiming part of the concessions. Suggestion of a prospective war between American and British interests is regarded as most mischievous and absurd.

REPARATIONS DISCUSSED.

RATHENAU'S LONDON VISIT.

ACID FRENCH-NEWSPAPER COMMENT.

LONDON, November 30.

Herr Simon who is described as Dr. Rathenau's secretary, told a Reuter representative that their conversations with Sir Robert Horne and Sir Robert Kindersley at the Treasury yesterday related to the economic situation of the world, particularly with reference to Germany. He believed that further conversations were very likely. The Cabinet discusses the reparations problem this evening. Sir John Bradbury, British Reparations Commission delegate, will probably further explain his proposal to grant Germany a moratorium. These British and German conversations have been fresh cause for acid comment by French newspapers.

STINNES' LONDON VISIT.

BERLIN, December 1.

Herr Hugo Stinnes has reported the results of his visit to London to a meeting of the Imperial Union of German Industries which decided to adopt a proposal of the Chancellor, Herr Wirth, to appoint a committee of six financiers and industrialists to get into touch with British and American economic circles with a view to opening credits not merely to assure the January reparations payment but to find a new method of payment and so prevent Germany again falling into condition making a default possible.

MARK'S RAPID RECOVERY.

LONDON, November 30.

German marks rapidly recovered to day to 930 and finished 965 compared with 1,107 yesterday, the market taking the view that the visit of Dr. Rathenau will lead to reorganisation of Germany's financial position and have an improving effect on other Continental currencies. Though towards the end of the day in evidence, French francs stood at 56.30 an 1/2 yesterday and 57.75 to-day thus checking the retrograde movement of the past week.

RUBBER SLUMP.

RESTRICTING OUTPUT.

LONDON, November 30.

In view of the termination on December 31 of the scheme of voluntary restriction of rubber output the council of the Rubber Growers' Association is asking all rubber producers who assented to the scheme to continue restriction by undertaking not to produce more rubber in the first six months of 1922 than produced during the corresponding period in 1921, or alternatively more than 75 per cent. of their output during the corresponding period in 1920. Producers who remained outside the scheme are urged to undertake to restrict output by 25 per cent. of the amount produced during the corresponding period of 1921 or 1920. Assent to renewal of the scheme will cease to be binding unless the assentors are notified prior to December 31 that members of the Association controlling not less than 70 per cent. of the producing area represented by members of the association have similarly agreed.

LONDON'S DAZZLE SIGNS.

JAZZ ILLUMINATIONS WHICH SHAME THE MOON.

Now that darkness overtakes dinner again, and summer-time is about to flee before the encroaching stars, habits of the West End are beginning to complain of a terrible affliction, remarks a London paper.
It is an old one, which seems to grow in virulence with the Peace. It is London's St. Vitus's dance of jazz luminaries which shout soap, cigartes, cough cures, baby foods, and unrighteous liquors from the housetops. The cumulative effect (writes an Observer correspondent) is about as distressing as a vorticist versiblist
on a tub-top with a megaphone accompanied by an unemployed riot.

The Regent Street corner of Piccadilly-circus is enough to give anyone a bad attack of asterisks. An electric motor car keeps racing a violent red-and-yellow clock overhead. Whirling wheels kick up the dust; the ladies'
hat-sear flashes luridly in the wind.
It is the "Ride of the Valkyries" translated into vacuum bulbs. Next to it an otherwise harmless baby food, suffering sadly from shell-shock, keeps twitching out in greens, purples, mauves, and blues. Above that a crimson bottle flashes streams of port into a yellow wingglass. Such a lamentable waste of good medicine!
Such an ordeal, too, for poor little Bros, who seems to want to flee with the rest of us into the unspoiled night of Piccadilly!

Cambridge-circus is ablaze with flaming, windy braziers and a wind-fluttered flag, so that as you approach from Shaftesbury-avenue you think there is a house on fire. And there is a galaxy of frenzied lettering which gives you the blinks. At the top of the Charing Cross Road the night is rent by forked lightning. Leicestersquare has a green river of tears flowing about a safety-razor advertisement. In Trafalgar square, heaven be praised! we get our first real glimpse of the tame, old-fashioned,
God-made stars, for there are only two signs, and the jumpy one is quite a languid affair. The Strand is virginal until we come to the Waterloo Bridge corner; beyond the bridge are the Bottle and the Bibulous Jock.

In Switzerland they do things rather differently—or did, before the war. There the advertising is under municipal control. There are no hoardings, but special kiosks adorned with artistic posters. There are no night-signs that one can remember.
In Zürich the citizens seem content to sit in café gardens by their swift-flowing Limmat, and watch the spate
and shimmer of water under the stars or moon, and the venerable shape of the old Munster dark against the night sky. In Lucerne there are only the lake side lamps and festive hotel
windows, and, above, the vague, brooding outlines of Pilatus and the Rigi.

In New York, now. But I understand that "dazzle signs" are more necessary than ever, now that New York has gone dry. They are of such dazzling and demoralizing magnitude that one can get the coveted list-tostarb'd feeling by merely watching them, and so cheaply, too! So perhaps they serve their purpose, after all. I know one devotee of the Cafe Royal who swears that he never feels in a really sane world again until he tucks safely in Piccadillycircus, sees the wheels going round, and the baby-food flashing, and the port wine splashing, and the red and yellow clock, which is the only one you can really rely on.

Some, perhaps, would rather be left to dream of that other Georgian London haunted by watchmen with dustpans and lanterns, or the Elizabethan one peopled by gallants with ruff, doublet, jerkin, and smoking torches. The soap, baby food, and whisky they prefer to encounter in newspapers, where the mere sight of it does not occasion a kind of visual delirium tremens.

BOY IN SKIRTS.

21 YEARS AS A GIRL.

A quaint story of a boy having been raised to manhood as a girl
comes from the little island of Ocacoke, off North Carolina; whither, after a brief struggle for a living in Baltimore, Charles C. Williams, 21, has just returned, declaring that he much prefers wearing skirts, sewing, household work, and the companionship of girls.

When Williams was born his mother was bitterly disappointed that he was not a girl. She called him Vera and dressed him as a girl. Ocaroke supports some 600 persons, mostly fisherfolk, and with the exception of the mother none knew that Vera was a boy.

He grew up to be a quite good-looking girl with blonde hair and fair complexion, and he did not leave the island until his 21st birthday, when his mother took him, dressed in women's clothes, to the mainland,
where he made the discovery that Ocaroke was only a small place in the world.

On his return to the island Vera wrote to a mail-order house and obtained by parcel post an outfit of men's clothes. He cut off his long hair, took the money he had earned by sewing, and rowed to the mainland.

Then he wrote to his mother that he was tired of being a girl.
She replied telling him that his real name was Charles. For two months Charles worked as a waiter in Baltimore. Then he became disgusted with the world. He has now returned to Ocaroke and the society of his girl
fr ends.

"I believe that all classes of people in Japan, even including the Government, must immediately
launch concrete measures of retrenchment and economy if the readjustment of commerce, the reduction in the prices of commodities, the stabilization of the nation's economic life, and a favourable balance in foreign trade are to be gained." This was the central theme of a remarkable speech delivered in Osaka by Governor Inouye of the Bank of Japan before the annual meeting of Kansai bankers.

How to Cure the Pains in Your Back.What is needed to put a speedy end to the excruciating agonies of kidney trouble.

There is only one way to do this, and that is to get a remedy that will go right to the root of the trouble—the Kidneys and Bladder. Those who suffer from kidney trouble are often told to avoid meats, to eat only fruits and vegetables, to drink only water, and to use only "natural"
remedies. But these are all wrong. The kidneys are the most important organs of the body, and they are the most easily injured. They are the filters of the blood, and they are the most vulnerable. They are the most important organs of the body, and they are the most easily injured. They are the filters of the blood, and they are the most vulnerable.

Mrs. Armstrong.

To cure kidney trouble of any kind you must positively get rid of the cause—the poisonous uric acid. Remember to do this a real remedy must pass through the kidneys and the bladder.
Little wonder workers. Writing on Sept. 22nd, 1914, Mrs. Armstrong says, "I suffered from terrible backache and from acute inflammation of the bladder for over seven years. To attempt to do any housework was an absolute torment as I could hardly sleep. At times I could not even get up to go to the toilet."
De Witt's Kidney and Bladder Pills are specially prepared to heal and strengthen the weakened Kidneys and Bladder.
Here is a typical letter from Mrs. Armstrong:
"I had been suffering from kidney trouble for years. I had tried all kinds of remedies, but nothing had helped. I had been told to eat only fruits and vegetables, and to drink only water. But I had been told to eat only fruits and vegetables, and to drink only water. But

The China Mail.

"TRUTH, JUSTICE, PUBLIC SERVICE"

HONGKONG, THURSDAY, DEC 1, 1921.

PRESIDENT SUN'S MISTAKES.

The China Mail has so far uttered no protest against Sun Yat Sen's contemplated expedition against Peking. Partly we hoped that it might prove to be the "bluff" that some people represent it. Partly we were afraid that our well-known antipathy to war might appear as our King Charles Head in such a protest. The time has come when it seems no longer right to be silent. We consider that, even in the interests of the Southern Government, such a military adventure would be a grave mistake. Our sympathies have been enlisted on the side of the Cantonese chiefly because they are the constitutional party, but also largely because they are anti-militaristic. Any filibustering by them of this kind must deprive us of confidence in the righteousness of supporting them. We hold that President Sun Yat Sen has enough work for his soldiers to do in restoring order (not merely restoring order) in the two warring provinces. Reports reaching us from West River districts paint a deplorable state of brigandage and lawlessness. There is a fair chance by setting up a really moderate government in South China, and

"making good" there first, of compelling comparisons that should compel recognition. It will take more time than a dash to Peking, successful or unsuccessful or neither, but its results will be surer. We think we can see the ideas behind the President's Napoleonic plans. A successful or showy coup against Peking would impress the ignorant foreign diplomat more deeply and more quickly than a lustrum of model government. So funds would be the more easily obtained, and "recognition" brought closer. The cynical aphorism that God is always on the side of the biggest battalions applies also to European diplomacy. It is wonderful how military strength appeals to them, and induces in them a sweet reasonableness foreign to their nature. But President Sun ought to know, as a student of affairs, that their day, like the day of the militarist, is nearing its close. Public opinion is regaining its own and the time is not remote when such arguments as Canton's visible progress affords will be more effective than military victories. Moreover, we would put it to him that such an adventure is a tremendous gamble, and that the stakes are not his own to risk. Germany, much better equipped than he, risked all on the hazard of the dice of war, and has lost all. One of the weaknesses of war as a solver of problems is its uncertainty. Assume (and it is a big assumption) that the armies of the North can be routed. What then? They have been routed before, and didn't stay routed. The Cantonese themselves should realize this, because although they have not a defeat on the battle field, they have persistently refused to accept it. What can be the use of a war which, whatever its outcome, can only be the first of a new series? If it is true that Chen Chiung-ming is averse from this northern campaign, or even only lukewarmly desiring it, let his advice be more carefully heeded. He is a very able, a very good, and we believe a very honest man. Professor Dewey describes him as the most impressive of all the officials he met in China. It is perhaps a characteristic paradox in a country of paradoxes if this valiant fighting man (though more scholar than soldier) should be against war while President Sun, the civilian "dreamer," is for it.

Are we entitled to conclude from the interesting interview with President Sun that the Daily Press published yesterday that this statesman was in a state of undesirable cerebral excitement when he talked to "Orin Keith"? He was certainly far from being diplomatic. He declared war against Japan, he spoke words likely to make Wu Pei-fu get busy; holding out his hand and curving the fingers he (as said to have) said: "General Chen I have in the hollow of my hand;" he announced that his people felt "bitter" against the British; he made the surprising announcement that our Hongkong Government "had its plans all laid to seize the territory between Kowloon and the East River, thus bringing the British lines right up to Canton." In reply to this last the China Mail has only three remarks to make. (1) We do not believe it. (2) The Hongkong Government, being purely a colonial administration, does not meddle in such matters. (3) If it did, its most hostile, active, and effective critics would be, not Chinese, not foreigners, but British subjects. The British people are now dead against such policies.

Meanwhile, President Sun would be employing his time better in Canton, investigating the circumstances which led up to the allegations regarding the Canton Tramway Concession, published in most important correspondence revealed in last Saturday's China Mail. We have deferred comment pending issue of a statement by the Canton Government, to which we have addressed telegraphic enquiries. We are now studying the reply. More anon.

RUGBY FOOTBALL.

LOCAL INTEREST BEING ROUSED.

That there is a distinct "Bullish" movement in the Rugby market in Hongkong has been apparent since the beginning of the present season. The dormant condition, into which this section of the Hongkong Football Club naturally fell during the war has been shaken off.

This happy result is in no small measure due to the example of the teams put in the field by H.M. Ships on this station.

Club players realise that with so much Navy talent available it will be no easy matter for them to achieve victory over that side when the Cup matches begin, as they will do, just before Christmas.

A great deal of keenness has been displayed in the early games of the season, but what is still required is more combination as a result of practice; and there is room for any promising young players there may be in the Colony, particularly in the back division, which, as always, comprises those positions which a Captain finds most difficult in filling.

With the coming of the King's Liverpool Regiment into garrison during the course of the season some unexpected results may be achieved; but in any event the Club may be counted on to maintain their position as against the other two contending teams.

The Cup, however, is not the only object of the season's sport. A cordial invitation to visit Shanghai has been received from the Rugby Football Club there, which has been accepted.

The exact date of the visit has yet to be fixed; but it is hoped that it will take place during the month of March.

No effort will be spared to raise as strong a XV as possible for this trip to the North; which is certain to be most enjoyable not only from a playing standpoint but also as affording an opportunity of meeting the Shanghai Rugby enthusiasts.

CABBAGE QUARREL.

FOUR WEEKS FOR CHOPPER ASSAULT.

Four weeks' hard labour was the sentence passed by Magistrate Lind yesterday on a Chinese charged with having assaulted another Chinese with a chopper, causing serious injuries.

According to Mr. M. M. Watson, for the complainant, the affray took place in the market on Oct. 27. The complainant accidentally knocked over a bundle of cabbages belonging to the defendant, who lost his temper and picked up a chopper, made a vicious attack causing two deep wounds. Besides these injuries, the complainant also received a fractured shoulder.

Defendant said that it was another man who attacked the complainant with the chopper, and he attempted to prevent him. In the struggle the man dropped the chopper. The witness picked it up and was accused of assault.

'BOOK CLUB' NOTES.

The Book with the blue cover has been issued, giving the titles of 120 books now, or soon to be, available. Further copies can be had on application. The list will be added to each month and members will be advised when fresh books come to hand. It is proving a fascinating, it bewildering occupation, noting the issue of new books, reading the reviews which do not always agree with the advertisements, and wondering where all the books go, who buy them, and who read them. Just now there seems to be a vogue in the publishing of collected editions of certain authors—dead and alive. The issue of collected editions of the latter I notice is very much questioned. Those who have collected Thomas Hardy for instance, must feel they are being had as that veteran of letters is by no means finished. I have W. B. Yeats' collected works up to 1908 and one feels with an unknown writer that they 'are now as inadequate an epitome of his work as if they had never been published.' Such instances could be multiplied. It seems to raise the question: Is any writer of our own generation worth collecting?

I have read somewhere that the Cinema film is proving a great asset to the book-selling world. People who see a novel filmed are anxious to read exactly that which issued from the moving, but silent lips of the film hero, heroine, or villain. It sounds likely. 'Barnaby Rudge' came my way as the result of seeing it filmed, but I cannot say that the impulse was to find out what certain characters said. Generally screened classics are a bit disappointing, for after all the beauty or the elusiveness of the written word, or the atmosphere of the book, cannot be given. O'Henry's 'A Double-dyed Deceiver' shown the other evening at Kowloon is a case in point. One wonders if notice of filmed books which are to be shown in the Colony, might not be given earlier instead of being advertised at a moment's notice.

I'm afraid this is very far from the caption of 'Book Club' notes. There is however not much to say. The membership is now 41 and might easily be increased if we tried. No great efforts have been made to do so, and as a matter of fact, 40 is a cosy number and I think the number suggested when the idea of the Club was first mooted.

The writer has several tracts of the Society for Pure English which he is willing to loan. Also.....but better give the catalogue a chance.

A thoughtful reader recommends No. 92, 'World Revolution.' In the fiction section there is a demand for 'Main Street,' 'Kimono,' 'Simon Called Peter,' and 'The Love Duck.' C. G.

[Readers will discover the "Kimono" gives an exaggerated sketch and distorted impression of things Japanese. "Simon Called Peter" has the true ring, and is certainly exciting. The others named we have not yet read. Among the year's new novels is one called "An Island Wooing" by Saffron-Middleton, which in our opinion is probably the worst on record. It is the most imbecilic farrago of fictional balderdash we ever wasted time on.—Ed. C.M.]

WORLD THEATRE.

"SEEDS OF VENGEANCE"

The mountain lands of Virginia hold some of the most beautiful scenic spots in America. Rugged rocks crowned with sweeping foliage away under the liquid sunlight of the sunny South; rushing rivers like silver threads winding through the shadows of the hill; mountain suns and mountain storms. Many of the most beautiful of these sylvan splendours have been wonderfully photographed in "Seeds of Vengeance." Select the picture of Margaret Prece's picturesque convincing story of the Virginia hills. This intensely dramatic picture will be shown at the World Theatre for four days, beginning to-morrow.

The picture tells the story of a mountain lad who is burdened with an oath to kill the man who shot his father. It is swift in action, convincing in portrayal and carries along the conflicting emotions of a great love and an intense hatred. The dramatic intensity is sustained up to the final scene in which late steps in and relieves David Cree of his oath and brings to him a great and comforting happiness.

HONGKONG HOTEL.

THE NEW "GRILL."

If the "Hongkong" is not the best hotel in the Orient it is certainly not because the enterprising management have not striven hard to make it so. That must have been a thought in the minds of the 300 odd guests who sat down to dinner last night in the new grill room. It was a happy inspiration which prompted the Management to fix St. Andrew's night, for the inauguration of what is only the first stage of an ambitious programme of improvements to a hotel that is already famous. The China Mail has already given a description of the new grill room. Last night's assemblage, it is enough to say, was such a gathering as seemed all of a piece with its sumptuous setting.

The Hongkong "grill" deserves to become famous and there is not much risk in predicting that it will.

CRUSHED BY ROCK.

OUR DANGEROUS BUILDING SITES.

While a quarryman was at work blasting rocks on a building site in May Road yesterday afternoon, a heavy boulder which got loosened by the blasting suddenly rolled down the hill and before the unfortunate man could get clear, he was crushed. A rescue party was promptly organised and after much strenuous labour managed to dislodge the rock and remove the badly crushed man from under it. He was still alive but unconscious. The motor ambulance was commandeered and he was speedily removed to the Government Civil Hospital, where he died soon after admittance.

FOR RUN-DOWN PEOPLE.

A Helpful Suggestion. The expression "run-down" comes from the feeble action of an unwound clock, and he who is run-down is a good one. Applied to health it means a condition in which all the bodily functions are faltering. Appetite falls, the digestion is impaired, the nerves are impoverished, the complexion becomes pale, there is no animal, but rather weary and mental depression. Fatigue is a constant symptom.

No particular organ being affected, you must look for a relief to the blood, as it circulates everywhere. Improvement in the blood is quickly felt throughout the entire system, and Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are the best blood builders. As your blood becomes richer and red, the various organs receive their life and the body recovers its vigour. If you have any or all of the above symptoms, try this tonic treatment with Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for pale people. If you are not fit Dr. Williams' Pink Pills will help you to health. For men and women. Get a supply now from any dealer or direct from Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., 205 N. 3rd St., New York, N.Y. Price 50c. 10c. per bottle. You can get a small bottle of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for pale people by sending a postcard request to the above address. Write now; it is well worth while.

REGISTERED OFFICE.—5, Duddell Street.

ABRIDGED PROSPECTUS.

Object.—This Company has been formed to purchase as a going concern the business known as the Humphreys Hide and Leather Works carried on by the firm of W. G. Humphreys and Company of No. 5, Duddell Street, Hongkong.

Business.—The business comprises the manufacture of all kinds of Leather and the dealing in of hides and skins, and of all descriptions of goods and merchandise incidental to the business of such nature, and is carried on upon extensive, well-built, commodious, and modern premises situated at Ma Tau Kok, Kowloon, on Kowloon Premises at Inland Lots Nos. 1267 and 640, which contain an area of 110,942 square feet, held under Ma Tau Kok a Crown Lease for 75 years with an option of a further 75 years from the 18th day of December, 1911, subject to a Crown rent of $506.00 per annum. These premises are within the Offensive Trade Area as defined by the Sanitary Authority and a licence has been granted by the Government to carry on the business of a Tannery in all respects thereon.

Site.—The Site is ideal for the purposes of the business, its area is ample for any future extensions that may be necessary, it is situated on the main road between Hok On and Kowloon City, and is in close proximity to the sea front.

Buildings.—The extensive buildings erected on the Property are constructed of the best solid brick and concrete with tiled roofs, and concrete pits and floor, this type of construction ensures a low rate of Insurance against Fire.

Machinery and motive power.—The Tannery is equipped with the most up-to-date Hide and Leather working machinery. The motive power is supplied by a 100 H.P. Crude Oil Bolinder Engine with Generator direct connected, the various processes in the Tannery being operated by separate Electric drives from individual Motors.

Water supply.—There is an independent supply of water from a specially constructed Well on the premises which is ample and suitable for the business.

Labour.—A plentiful and healthy supply of cheap country labour both male and female is always obtainable. The expansion of the business will therefore provide employment to a large number of Chinese labourers whose increased efficiency and development is in itself sufficient to commend this undertaking to all those who have the interests of Chinese and British trade at heart. From the foregoing facts it is asserted that from its equipment and position the Tannery has few equals.

Purposes of Formation.—The Reasons of the Vendors in turning the business into a limited liability Company are:—(a) To procure the necessary additional Capital required, in order to meet the increasing demand for their Leather. (b) To further develop the business along sound progressive lines.

TERMS OF PURCHASE.

The premises are sold to the Company subject to a charge to the Mortgagees to secure $300,000 at an interest of 7 per cent per annum. The Mortgagees stipulate that $100,000 shall be repaid by the Company at an early date and consent to the balance remaining on loan. If as is anticipated the shares now offered to the public are fully subscribed it is proposed to pay off the whole debt forthwith.

Valuation of Property.—Hereunder are set forth at conservative figures the value of the property purchased by the Company and upon which the Vendors have based the purchase price.

Land (K. I. L. 1267 and 640 = 110,942 Sq. feet) and Buildings thereon as valued by J. Caer Clark, Architect and Surveyor.....	$ 300,505.00
Machinery and Plant as valued by Robt. Hunter, of Macdonald & Co., Engineers.....	120,779.11
Stock of Hides, Leather, Chemicals and Materials etc., as per valuation by S. Humphreys and certified by Edmund McGrath, Tanner, less amounts due as shown by the books.....	65,821.05
	$ 487,105.16

No charge for Goodwill, etc.—In as much as the undertaking is a comparatively new one, the Vendors present to the Company the goodwill of the business and the trade marks and chops relating to their goods which are already well known and growing in popularity rapidly.

The Vendors also claim no recompense for approximately 2 years of careful experimental work as a result of which, climatic and other difficulties have been overcome, the types of Leather most suited to the Chinese market gauged, and exact manufacturing cost ascertained.

APPROPRIATION OF CAPITAL.

The capital of $562,900 to be provided by the present issue of 56,290 shares now offered for public subscription, is intended as regards $262,900:

(a) To provide for the extension of the drying accommodation of Tannery.

(b) For the purpose of providing further working capital in order to finance the rapidly increasing business.

The balance will be devoted to paying off the existing loan of $300,000 upon the security of the Property.

Dividends.—It is provided by the Articles of Association that a preferential dividend of 10% per annum be paid to shareholders before any appropriation of profits is made by the Directors to the Reserve Fund.

Contract.—The following contract has been entered into:—

Contract dated the 10th day of November 1921 between W. G. Humphreys & Co., of 5, Duddell Street, Hongkong, Merchants, the owners of the properties of the one part and Charles David Wilkinson on behalf of the Company of the other part for the sale of the business and the leasehold property registered in the Land Office as Kowloon Inland Lots 640 and 1267 together with all messuages, tenements, fixtures, erections, and buildings erected thereon.

The purchase price for the sale of the properties has been fixed by the vendors who are the promoters of the Company at $487,100, nothing being charged for the goodwill. Of this sum $300,000 will be payable to the Mortgagees for the purpose of paying off a loan of that amount advanced to the Vendors on the security of the properties, and the balance of $187,100 will be paid and satisfied by the allotment of 18,710 ordinary shares credited as fully paid up.

Confidence of the Vendors.—That the Vendors themselves have every confidence in the undertaking is shown by the fact that they are receiving no cash consideration for the sale of the Tannery, but are accepting shares in the new Company.

Applications will be received by:—Hongkong & Shanghai Banking Corporation, Chartered Bank of India, Australia and China and Bank of China.

And Prospectus and forms of application can be obtained at the above Banks, or from:—Members of the Hongkong Stock Exchange, Members of the Hongkong Share Brokers' Association, The Registered Office of the Company, or at the offices of the Company's Solicitors, Messrs. Wilkinson & Grist, 9, Queen's Road Central, Victoria, Hongkong.

CANTON VIEWS RE WASHINGTON CONFERENCE.

From the Ministry of Foreign Affairs, Canton, we have received the following for publication:

The Chinese Question now means the security of China against aggressions which endanger her existence as an independent and peaceful state. This must be the work of China and is only possible by the organization of China's human and material resources under a leadership capable of unifying the country and modernising her politically and economically.

This leadership must express itself in the form of a national government established in accordance with the will of the Chinese people as defined in the fundamental law of the land. Any other solution would be a mere palliative, if not wholly illusory.

A proper national government already exists at Canton. But it cannot function effectively on account of the continued foreign recognition of the Peking administration as the Government of China, which, in existing circumstances, is tantamount to the imposition by the Powers on the Chinese People of a weak and corrupt ruling body in violation of the principle of government by consent of the governed.

This situation must end if the Conference is to inaugurate an era of international security in the Far East in the interests of world peace. The first condition, therefore, of a permanent settlement of the Chinese Question is the withdrawal of recognition from the administration of Hsu Shi-chang which is at once illegal in origin and impotent and disintegrating in operation. There is nothing in the objection that the recognition of Peking must be continued because the Powers must recognise some ruling body as the Government of China, since it will be remembered that from the date of the abdication of the Manchus in February 1912 to October 1913, there was no internationally recognised Government in China. But there is the alternative Government of President Sun Yat-sen, whose recognition would lead to the unification of China.

A second condition is the non interference in the political affairs of China by the foreign Powers. It is needless to point out that such interference in the past has proved disastrous to the best interests of the Foreign Powers as well as of China. It is the right of every nation to work out its own destinies. There is no doubt as to the ability of the Chinese people, with several thousand years of history behind them, to find a solution for the present problems that necessarily arise with the tremendous changes, political, economic, and social, which the country has been undergoing.

A third condition is the adoption of open diplomacy in the dealings between the Powers and China and between the Powers themselves concerning China. This must apply not only to the future, but also retroactively. The Powers have in the past obtained commitments from officials in Peking and in the provinces of which no proper record has been kept and which have fettered China's development. All agreements, concessions and promises with, by, and concerning China should therefore be tabled and be subject to review and judgment in the light of the principles herein enunciated. A notable example is that of the treaties and agreements resulting from the Twenty-One Demands.

The political and economic modernization of China under a national government based on the consent of the Chinese People necessitates the application of three principles, namely, Territorial Integrity, Economic Integrity, and Administrative Integrity. While general principles are useful to a certain extent, it must be acknowledged that their repeated enunciation in the past has not prevented their breach. It is necessary therefore that they be specifically applied.

The Principle of Territorial Integrity affirms the indivisibility of the territory of the Chinese Republic inside and outside the Great Wall and China's sovereignty in each and every part thereof. This involves (a) the settlement of the Shantung Question in terms of the cancellation of the China-Japan Treaty relating to Shantung and notes relating thereto and the recognition of the validity of the abrogation of the Kiaochow Convention on China's declaration of war against Germany; (b) the settlement of the Manchurian and Mongolian Questions in terms of the cancellation of the China-Japan Treaty relating to South Manchuria and Eastern Inner Mongolia and notes relating thereto and the conversion of the railways in North and South Manchuria into Chinese state-owned properties; (where the questions affecting the railways and Outer Mongolia require negotiation with Russia that is to be reserved for direct conversations between China and that Power); (c) the solution of the Tibetan Question in terms of the recognition by Great Britain of Chinese sovereignty and the grant of Tibetan autonomy; (d) the relinquishment of the leased territories; (e) the restoration of the settlements and concessions to China, provided that there is an interim period of a number of years, when their administration shall be vested in a Council consisting of a Chinese chairman and members elected, as to half, by foreign taxpayers; and, as to the other half, by Chinese taxpayers; and (f) the withdrawal of foreign troops whether their presence be sanctioned by treaties or absolutely unwarranted. The Principle of Economic Integrity affirms the necessity of the legal Central Government of the Republic of China being freed from treaties which have hitherto imposed fiscal dismemberment on China. First, it involves the revision of all treaties which place restrictions on China or grant rights to foreign nationals in derogation of Chinese sovereignty in the matter of taxation whether relating to Tariff Duties or inland revenue in consideration of China's engagement not to levy certain forms of taxes which admittedly impede trade. Secondly, the principle calls for the remission of the remainder of the Boxer Indemnity, which is—besides a heavy burden on the financial resources of the country—the only punitive as distinguished from reparatory, international indemnity in force to-day and which, when remitted, can most usefully be applied for educational and industrial purposes to be specifically designated if so desired. Thirdly, the principle also calls for the elimination of spheres of influence or interest which are harmful anachronisms. The Principle of Administrative Integrity calls for the gradual abolition of Consular jurisdiction on a sort of instalment plan, e.g. as Chinese laws relating to the Law Merchant are assimilated to those of the West, China will set up special courts for the trial and adjudication of cases between foreigners in Chinese territory or between Chinese and foreigners. The establishment of Japan's police agencies at various places in China should forthwith be abolished. Foreign post offices which have from their inception been working only under sufferance and which have recently been subject to notorious abuses, such as the smuggling of morphine and other drugs, should be removed. Telegraphic and wireless installations by foreign Governments and nationals should be dismantled.
